

FIRST AID Train the Trainer Application Form

Global Training Centre is currently accepting applications for First Aid Train the Trainer!

Our First Aid courses are designed for the Worksite First Aider. The new CSE Z1210-17 and Alberta Government Standard has provided new guidelines for training First Aid regulations in your worksite that public courses do not meet.

Our program's (Emergency and Standard) achieved government certification in early 2021. We are looking forward to you seeing what our program's have to offer!

The Prerequisites must be met for eligibility BEFORE beginning your Train the Trainer session.

Location:
Global Training Centre
Strathmore, Alberta

To Whom it may concern,

Global Training Centre would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your interest in the First Aid Train the Trainer program. Enclosed is your complete application package including detailed application process instructions and letters.

To date, Global has assisted thousands of clients in their training requirements worldwide and have become renowned for the quality and standards that back each program. These standards are the basic agreements with which all Licensee instructors operate and provide confidence in the program consistency regardless of the location and party delivering the program.

Global reserves the right to remove the Global license from any individual that does not uphold these strict standards at all times when delivering the licensee program. Aligned with these standards, the First Aid Train the Trainer program is offered on a license basis to successful candidates.

As a minimum the instructors will be required to:

- Complete the First Aid Train the Trainer Program
- Complete the audit on your first course or within 180 days (whichever comes first)
- Uphold the student material requirements
- Uphold the student/instructor evaluation requirements
- Uphold the Instructor's Code of Ethics
- Complete the certificate refresher requirements (as per the Instructor's Guideline provided in the program)

We at Global look forward to working with you as a licensee instructor and I am sure you will find our products, service and support will more than exceed your expectations. If you have any questions or concerns do not hesitate to contact myself.

Sincerely,

Brian Knight
External Program Manager
